Name: Heather Tinley

Company/Position: Marketing and PR coordinator for Cherry Creek Schools

Brief Bio/History:

I’m half geek, half cheerleader, and all enthusiasm. After receiving my master’s degree in public relations from the University of Denver, I’ve spent thirteen years working in the performing arts, transportation, education, and healthcare fields helping organizations tell their story. When I’m not supporting the great work of Cherry Creek Schools, I can be found at the zoo, making homemade ice cream, or enjoying interesting conversations with family and friends.

Hobbies/Interests

Dancing, writing, exploring, reading, learning, baking…and having conversations!

I love talking and learning about media, gender, self-care, healthy boundaries, quantum mechanics, ice cream recipes, empathy, conservation, and a great many other topics.
