

Leadership Aurora Class 2022
Mini-Profile

Name: Kathryn Mullins

Company/Position: Vega Collegiate Academy, Executive Director

Brief Bio/History:

Kathryn Mullins is the Founder and Executive Director of Vega Collegiate Academy. She is an educator with twelve years of experience in a variety of urban school settings, Ms. Mullins has experience teaching elementary, middle, and high school, in both general and special education settings, in Brooklyn, New York City, Harlem, the Bronx, North Carolina, and Chicago. Ms. Mullins was selected as New Teacher of the Year, and Teacher of the Year while in North Carolina and has been featured in Doug Lemov's Teach Like a Champion training series, in which thousands of educators participate every year. In 2015, Ms. Mullins earned a Fellowship with Building Excellent Schools, a highly selective Fellowship that trains school leaders to lead charter schools in high-need urban neighborhoods across the country. Ms. Mullins holds a BM from the Jacobs School of Music at Indiana University - Bloomington, a MA with Distinction from Relay, Graduate School of Education, and is currently pursuing her EdD in Administrative Leadership through the University of Denver, Colorado.

Hobbies/Interests

- I'm boring - I work a lot and like working :)
- Classical harpist/musician (played a lot of weddings in my time)
- I attempt to run, but I am clumsy (though I have completed the NYC marathon!)
- I read (though not as much as I'd like)

(Please return by Friday, August 20, 2021)
