A clip and a perm — The mother/daughter team of Roxie Specht and Tammy Jimenez (center) are joined by other employees, friends, and Chamber members at the grand opening of Hair Rx on Jan. 5. Formerly HairColorXperts, the duo saved and reopened the salon after the franchise went bankrupt. Specht and her daughter are taking the salon a completely different direction, replacing corporate coldness with family, infusing class with preeminent service. “The freedom we’ve gained now that we are an independent operation has allowed us to remodel and come up with several innovations like the Relax Room,” said Specht. “It is a private room that allows clients to have their coloring process while enjoying complimentary wine, wireless Internet and satellite television.” Hair Rx is located in the Pioneer Square Center, 5496 S. Parker Road in Aurora. Appointments are available by calling 303-680-7121 or by going to their website at www.HairRx.net (Photo courtesy Brian Molitoris, Photographer)

WIB to single out HERoes

The Chamber Women in Business Committee has begun preparations for the annual Unsung Heroes Making a Difference Breakfast March 14 at the Doubletree Hotel SE. The event celebrates women who have made a difference in their corporate environment and community and who have not received significant recognition.

“We need to hear from the community,” said WIB Chair Janine Little. “You know who these wonderful behind the scenes women are so get a nomination to us right away.”

Last year’s winners included Deanne Criswell, Patti Forthofer, Kelly O’Conner, Connie Vandenberg, Linda Witulski and Andrea Graham.

“You won’t want to miss this breakfast,” said Naomi Colwell, event coordinator. “It has really become the feel-good gathering of the year.” Colwell said both event and table sponsorships are still available. Call her at 303-344-1500 for details.

Save the date—Leadership Golf Tourney on calendar

The snow may be flying, but golf season is almost here! According to Kimberly Curtis, Executive Director of the Leadership Aurora program, the 10th Annual Leadership Aurora Golf Tournament will be one of the most exciting Aurora tournaments of the season. “We have some changes in store that will provide more fun, more excitement, and an even more enjoyable experience than you’ve had at this tournament in the past,” Curtis said.

The tourney, presented by Rural/Metro Ambulance, will once again be held at the beautiful and challenging Heritage Eagle Bend Golf & Country Club, E-470 and Gartrell Road, on June 19, 2008. Registration is at 7:00 a.m. with a Shotgun start at 8:00 a.m.

“Sponsorship opportunities are still abundant right now and range from $2,000 to $200,” Curtis urged. “Individual golfer fee is $150. Hurry and sign up as this tournament sells out very quickly!”

Contact Curtis for more information at 303-344-1500 or email her at kimberly.curtis@aurorachamber.org.

Panel to discuss Eastern Metro Area economic outlook

Area business leaders will gather for an economic outlook on Wednesday, Feb.20 at 7:30 a.m. when the Aurora Chamber of Commerce holds its 2008 Eastern Metro Area Economic Breakfast.

Co-hosted by the Aurora Board of Realtors, the event will be at the Radisson Hotel SE, 3200 S. Parker Rd. near I-225 and Parker Road.

Keynote speakers will be Dr. Richard Wobbekind, Associate Professor of Finance and Director of the Business Research Division for the University of Colorado at the Boulder’s Leeds School for Business.

Dr. Wobbekind will be joined by Aurora Economic Development Council Vice President Dick Hinson and Corri Spiegel, Economic Development Manager for the City of Centennial.

Chamber President Kevin Hougen said the panel will give Eastern Metro areas businesses excellent insight into this area’s economic future as well as how it fits in Colorado’s plans. “I think the information these economic professional will provide will prove invaluable for our business members,” he said.

As director CU’s Business

Research Division, Dr. Wobbekind’s has developed annual consensus forecasts of the Colorado economy and performed various strategic analyses and economic impact assessments of the Colorado economy. Dr. Wobbekind also produces a quarterly economic indicator series for Boulder County and a quarterly Business Leaders Confidence Index® for Colorado.

And the walls come tumblin’ down – Although hidden from sight by his heavy equipment operator, Mayor Ed Taver is behind the controls as he begins the process of tearing down Buckingham Square Mall Jan. 8. Part of the Aurora scene since 1971 the mall will give way to a new development called Havana Gardens that will include many new “big box” stores, retail space, restaurants and new residential properties. The project is part of a larger effort to redevelop all along Havana in Aurora led by the newly formed Havana Business Improvement District, headed up by Gayle Jetchick. The Havana BID is an outgrowth of a Chamber initiated effort that dates back to 2003 led by Paul Suss of Suss Buick Pontiac GMC to find ways to improve the Havana corridor business climate.

Chair’s Letter

I’ve asked the following people to fill the vacant board positions: David Maxwell, 1st Bank of Aurora, Maren Stewart, The Children’s Hospital, Ken Smith, Owest Communications and Derrick Barnett, Pepsi Bottling Group. I’m hopeful they will be able to join us since they would add greatly to the depth and breadth of the board.

I’m also pleased with the work of the nominating committee. They have selected the following individuals to be on our executive committee and fill the positions indicated:

- Chair, 2008-2009: Jo Snell, E-470 Public Highway Authority
- Chair-Elect, 2009-2010: Craig Ward, Padgett Business Services
- Secretary, 2008-2009: Diane Garcia, 2G Associates, LLC
- Treasurer, 2008-2009: David Patterson, Rural/Metro Ambulance
- Immediate Past Chair, 2007-2008: Bob Barké, BAR-K Insurance
- Immediate Past Chair, 2006-2007: Dr. Linda Bowman, Community College of Aurora

Also accepting leadership roles on the executive committee are:

- Public Issues Chair, 2008-2009: Jim Suss, Buick Pontiac GMC

- Membership Services Chair, 2008-2009: Judy Booth, Fitzsimons Community Federal Credit Union.
- Business Development Chair, 2008-2009: Margo Jamieson, Kaiser Permanente.
- Community Service Chair, 2008-2009: Craig Ward, Padgett Business Services.

I can proudly say that this group of dedicated, hard working board members represent the broad diversified membership of the Chamber. Our slate of candidates will be formally presented to you, the membership, at the Chamber’s Annual Awards Banquet on the evening of April 11, 2008. Please help me welcome the new and renewing members of your Chamber’s Board of Directors for this next year 2008—2009.

And don’t forget, if you have someone – a Chamber member of course – who you think would be a good candidate for our hard-working Board of Directors, don’t hesitate to contact me or the Chamber President Kevin Hougen. With more than 1200 members we certainly have many highly-qualified people to choose from.

On the other hand... — State Senator Suzanne Williams describes some of the bills she hopes to push through the 2008 Legislative session at the annual Legislators’ Breakfast Jan. 7. Sen. Williams was one of seven eastern metro legislators who shared their hopes for Colorado and the Eastern Metro’s future at a breakfast hosted by the Community College of Aurora. Joining the crowd of more than 100 were Senator Williams, Senator Nancy Spence, and Representatives Mary Hodge, David Balmer, Debbie Stafford, Nancy Todd and Michael Garcia. Government Affairs and Education Committee Chair Jim Suss told the crowd, that the morning was part of efforts by the Chamber “to ensure our business and professional community is informed on critical issues that could affect them.”

Committee gears up for Awards Banquet

More than 15 volunteers gathered at the Chamber Jan. 10 to begin preparations for the 53rd Annual Chamber Awards Banquet. Set for April 11 at the Radisson Hotel SE, the gala evening is once again expected to be the social event of the year in the Eastern metro area.

Theme for this year’s evening is “Phantom of the Chamber” said Chamber event liaison Naomi Colwell. “We had so much fun with the Bond theme of last year we decided stay with a theatrical approach.”

Colwell said the black tie affair, the Chamber’s major fund raiser for the year, would once again feature a first class silent auction as well as recognition of the “best of the best” in the community during the past year.

Chamber President Kevin Hougen encouraged chamber members to begin identifying those who should be singled out for the annual awards. “We all know individuals who have risen above the rest this past year as community and business leaders,” Hougen told the committee. “Let’s start the process of identifying them now.” He pointed out that past award winners read like a “Who’s Who” in Aurora and the surrounding communities.

Sponsorships for the event are still available. Call Colwell at 303-344-1500 or go to The Chamber website at www.aurorachamber.org for details.
