Introduction

Since 1984 the Aurora Chamber of Commerce has promoted and fostered the development of leadership in our community. Leadership Aurora is a program designed to meet our city's need for the active participation of informed, skilled and involved community leaders. As a result, Leadership Aurora educates and prepares community leaders who are committed to shaping Aurora's future.

Leadership Aurora provides the opportunity for participants to broaden their knowledge of the community while enhancing their leadership skills. The program brings diverse people to learn from each other, creates an expectation of servant leadership, produces a basic understanding of how people and groups function, and builds in real opportunities to teach knowledge and skills.

The purpose of Leadership Aurora is reflected in its goals:

- To develop awareness of the Aurora area – its strengths, challenges and opportunities
- To enhance leadership abilities
- To create a network of informed, concerned leaders
- To encourage greater involvement in the community

We applaud and congratulate the 2002-03 Leadership Aurora Class who have accepted the challenge to ensure Aurora, Colorado is a better place to live, work and play!

Acknowledgements

Leadership Aurora is one of more than 1,000 community leadership programs in the United States, and is a member of the Community Leadership Association. It is a program of the Aurora Chamber of Commerce and underwritten by the Chamber, in-kind donations, and tuition. Curriculum and other program specifics are overseen by Leadership Aurora Board members who themselves are graduates of the program.

Each month topics are presented through the use of prominent individuals from the public and private sectors, in-depth dialogue of current issues pertinent to the session topics, case studies, site visits, interactive and "hands-on" experience. Participants also work in teams or as a group on projects of their own design to provide tangible solutions to various contemporary community challenges. The community actually becomes the classroom.

Through contact with a wide range of professionals and the "behind the scenes" knowledge gained, Leadership

Aurora participants have the opportunity to expand their influence on the community. Leadership Aurora seeks to present views from a wide spectrum of experts. The success of the program is measured by the positive effect on the participants, their organizations and the community.

The class of 2002-03 expresses its sincere gratitude to each board member who spent countless volunteer hours formulating program content and securing presenters for each session. Past class members bring their commitment, knowledge and expertise in developing leaders for our community.

On behalf of the Leadership Aurora Board, we also extend our thanks to all of the speakers and presenters who volunteered their time during this past year. Each of you shares in the success of the program. Thank you!

Board Chair

As the year comes to an end for our Leadership Aurora Class of 2003, I want to extend my sincere congratulations!

This September we initiated our class members in our beautiful mountain town of Estes Park. Although it was windy, there was no stopping the friendships that were instantly developed. It was apparent this class truly showed more synergy than we would have ever expected. The leaders within this group were already venturing forth. Whether it was tested during our planned activities or simply during a round table discussion, we knew this group wasn't going to let us down. Leadership is a team effort and we couldn't wait to see what this class would bring throughout the program sessions.

With all this enthusiasm I knew the Leadership Board would be faced with challenges to excel in the preparation of our upcoming sessions. From community, media, police, fire, education, economic and infrastructure to the military sessions, our anticipation had just begun. Colorado was blessed with some much-needed moisture in March, thus we were forced to cancel our first session ever, Health Care Day, due to snow. Can you believe having an actual snow day for the City of Aurora in 2003?

The class completed many projects for our community. Just to name a few: providing gift baskets over the holidays for families in need, via Aurora Mental Health Center; building storage shelves and raising $500+ for the Comitris Crisis Center. These funds were donated for their emergency hotel funds for families in need; they worked with Joseph's Journey, which provides a child who is terminally ill an experience in outdoor adventure, and also participated in a book drive for the Aurora Rotary. In their spare time, because of having a very passionate social director who organized many outside activities, they went on a fourteenner-hike, attended a Nuggets game, and had several happy-hours. What a great group of people who continue to rally on and on!

I would like to personally thank each and every one of the Leadership Board Members. Without the passion from these dedicated people these class sessions would not have been successful. Thanks to Kimberly Curtis, Program Director, who is very dear to my heart, as she kept me focused during all our tasks-at-hand.

Remember, although this year has come to an end – access what you have learned, use all your resources for future networking opportunities and continue to build those relationships. Stay involved and continue to volunteer your time for the City of Aurora. This program accomplishment has enriched many people and we thank you for your participation. Best of Luck to the Class of 2003!

Cindy Kunkel

2002-03 Leadership Aurora Board Chair

Class President

Thanks for the journey! If a journey begins with a single step, then our adventure in Leadership Aurora began last September in Estes Park at our class retreat. Each of us entered this program as an individual with a unique set of skills, strengths, and abilities. Along with these qualities was a willingness to be part of a leadership team for the betterment of our community.

We soon discovered a great deal about our distinct backgrounds, personalities, and our own character, as we were made aware of our True Colors. With the understanding of each color, we also gained the perspective that successful organizations are comprised of a blend of "oranges", "golds", "greens", and "blues", and that every color adds a needed dimension.

As our journey continued, the class attended monthly sessions where we increased our depth of knowledge and understanding of the roles and responsibilities of police officers, educators, media representatives, community organizations, city officials, our friends in the military, and members of the Aurora Fire Department. Our session on Health Care entitled, "Where Does it Hurt?" although canceled, was appropriately named as we all recovered from back pain after shoveling snow from the snowstorm of the century. Each session brought its own set of insights and a realization that there are hundreds of organizations, businesses and individuals who work hard daily to make Aurora a great place to live.

At this point, we must acknowledge the tremendous work and efforts of the Aurora Leadership Board and Kimberly Curtis who ensured that each and every session was a valuable learning experience. Their work opened our minds and our eyes to many different facets of the city. Thank you!

Along the way, this cohort of leaders was able to demonstrate a strong commitment to the city of Aurora and put our leadership skills into practice. We provided holiday baskets and gifts to families in need, raised money to sponsor hotel stays for those with no other shelter, and provided support to a group with the sole purpose of granting a special wish to a child with a terminal illness. In addition, we collected children books for the Rotary Club and built a shelving and storage area for the Comitris Crisis Center.

I want to personally thank every one of you for your precious gift of time and your incredible commitment to the future of Aurora. I have learned so much from all of you and it has truly been an honor and a pleasure to work with you. I would be remiss if I failed to acknowledge how close this class has been throughout the year. We have developed professional and personal relationships that will be carried far into the future. We all treasure these friendships. The time together has melded our individual strengths into a cohesive collaborative force.

As this journey comes to an end, it is time to look forward and on to the next great adventure. Let us keep our commitment to serving Aurora and never doubt the ability each of us has to make a positive impact on the lives of others.

Through Leadership Aurora, I’ve gained a more in depth understanding of the community I live in. I plan to be here for a long time and hope to make many more positive contributions to my community. This program has opened my eyes to all of the truly wonderful programs that Aurora offers to its residents. It’s also shown me where I can offer my skills and expertise to make it a better place to live and work. Also, it has confirmed what I suspected all along, and that is what great partners the military and the local community are. I’ve met so many interesting people in my class and hope that the relationships we’ve built will help all of us to continue working to improve Aurora.

Wow – what didn't I learn? First, how 38 individuals with a wide variety of backgrounds can come together as a team and accomplish many things both professionally and socially. Probably the most important thing I learned is how the Aurora community operates having witnessed and participated in so many different hands-on tours, briefings and visits throughout the city. Organizations I never knew existed or if I did, never understood the complexity and the type of people it took to run these professional organizations. Finally, I learned a lot about the importance of the Aurora Chamber of Commerce and it's vital role in the community. We have formed lifelong friendships while participating in this leadership class and I hope to keep in contact with as many as I can long after this class has graduated.

Opening Retreat

Leadership for a Changing World™

Lakeshore Lodge, Estes Park, CO

Session Coordinators:

Cindy Kunkel (Chair), Rich Allison,
Becky Barcheski, Grant Barrett, Sheila
Martin, Sam McGhee, Diane Norman,
Jake Shirk

The opening retreat was a great learning experience for all. Not only did members learn about classmates through various activities, but they also learned about themselves. Lieutenant Jake Shirk set the tone for the weekend with his lighthearted approach conveying important leadership experiences. The piggyback riding and brainteasers certainly helped to form camaraderie. "No doubt, the team building events were the most memorable,"

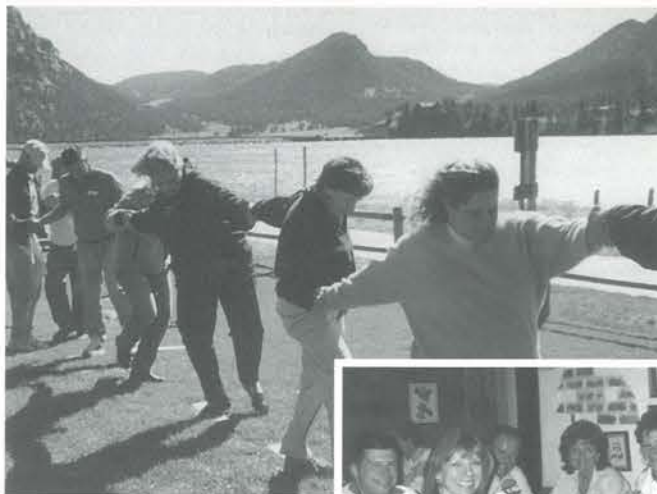

Bob Schwanke said. Participants learned if their personality was orange, blue, gold, or green as identified by the True Colors exercise and became Snickers, Baby Ruths or a variety of other candy bars. While listening to the elk bugles, life-long friendships were clearly formed at this event.

“In the Line of Fire”

Session Coordinators: Jake Shirk (Chair), Sam McGhee

This session revealed the numerous programs and activities within the Aurora Police Department. Class members were able to participate in a virtual SWAT exercise, understand the department's new organizational structure, spend time in the jail, have the opportunity to fire automatic weapons and see first hand the force behind the Canine Unit. We were all impressed by the rigorous training police officers experience in the Academy and throughout their careers. Class members were able to witness the following leadership skills put into practice: conflict management, encouragement, and courage. There is little doubt why the Aurora Police Department has achieved an international reputation for being in the forefront of progressive public safety organizations.

What a great way to begin our class sessions!

Session Coordinators: Kim Podobnik (Chair), Buck Buckingham, Rozi Horn, Sam McGhee, Randy Simpson, Candrea Thomas

Sometimes, what you say isn't as important as how you say it. And sometimes, what you don't say carries more weight than what you do say. These were some of the observations we made during the Media Day session. This session gave us a better understanding of the media's role in the community and how businesses and other organizations can better work with the media.

We greatly enjoyed the panel discussion with Mike Landess of KMGH-7 and Jim Benneman of KUSA-9 and learned about the challenges of taking a day's worth of news into the limited amount of airtime of a 5:00 p.m. broadcast. Later we all had great fun taking turns being interviewed in the television studio at Aurora's own station, KACT-8. We toured the rest of the station's production facilities and finished the day by presenting the news stories that we produced in small groups.

Brandi Jones, Bob Schwanke, Melissa Francis and Mary Berrigan, work together to get their story straight for the Media Day Session.

“Community Ties and You”

Session Coordinators: Annie Ayers (Chair), Christine Hoppe, Sheila Martin, Kim Podobnik

After an overview on Aurora's demographics, discussing how the community is changing to meet the needs of a diverse and growing population, a briefing on Parks and Recreation and being treated to a delightful holiday concert by school children, we were off for a hands-on tour of various locations. By visiting the Department of Human Services, Aurora History Museum, the new Municipal Building, Aurora Mental Health Center, Comitis Crisis Center and Aurora Senior Center we saw first-hand the commitment of those individuals who work day in and day out to come to the aid of people in need. They are the unsung heroes of Aurora, working behind the scenes to have a positive impact on individual lives. It was a wake up call and a reminder of our responsibility as citizens to return some of the blessings we have received over our lifetimes.

“Building on our Future”

Session Coordinators: Sheila Martin (Chair), Rich Allison, Becky Barcheski, Diane Norman, Kim Podobnik, Brent Stark

The Economic and Infrastructure Session provided insight into the complex development process that takes place in our city. “After the Economics and Infrastructure Session, I have a new appreciation for Aurora,” Melisa Baker said. This session offered a quick look into the delicate balancing act that takes place each time a new structure is erected. An incredible amount of hard work and dedication go into the design of our city. As the City Council carefully weighs the pros and cons of future building, the developer’s initial concept of the site and the voices of the city and local neighbors must all be taken into account. The role-playing opportunity allowed class members to experience some of the drama surrounding the development process. Especially impressive was Mark Isenburg’s star performance as the developer’s spokesperson.

Leanne Wheeler and Lance Goerndt post their observations after spending the morning surveying different educational facilities serving Aurora.

“School Daze”

Session Coordinators: Christine Hoppe (Chair), Becky Barcheski, Tim Ehgotz, Rozi Horn, Norma Silvers

In all, the members of Leadership Aurora Class of 2002-2003 visited 16 educational sites, in both Aurora Public Schools and Cherry Creek Public Schools. Large group discussions were held with members from both school systems’ Boards, the Colorado Department of Education and the two Districts’ Foundation members. Many issues facing the education system in Aurora were discussed including, state testing such as CSAP, the missions of the districts, and the obstacles facing the education system. The challenges facing the educational systems in Aurora seem to be wide spread and cross all economic and social boundaries. New to the education system are multilingual barriers presented by the students and their families and a transit student population. From the most impoverished school to the most affluent, Leadership Aurora members learned of the many issues, beyond reading, writing, and arithmetic, facing our educational systems and how we can assist the districts in meeting those challenges.

“Where Does It Hurt?”

Session Coordinators: Bev Husted-Petry (Chair), Annie Ayers, Bob Barké, Cindy Kunkel, David Patterson

Instead of learning about the health care system in Aurora, the 2003 Leadership Class spent their Health Care session, scheduled March 19th, snowed in their homes due to the biggest blizzard that Aurora has seen in 90 years. Businesses, schools and roads were closed for up to four days as over 40 inches of snow blanketed the city. Although the class was disappointed to have missed the Health Care session, it was great to be part of the excitement and history.

“Pride and Presence”

Session Coordinators: Candrea Thomas (Chair)

Buck Buckingham, Tim Ehgotz, Rozi Horn,
Christine Hoppe, Diane Norman, Bob Steine

We met early in the morning at the Buckley Air Force Base and as the security gate checked our access pass, we knew that this would be a day unlike any other. The morning began with presentations that highlighted the history and accomplishments of the forces located at Buckley. The pride that the speakers brought forth was contagious. We then were given the opportunity to receive a mini training on chemical warfare and weapons of mass destruction, including graphic pictures and viewing of equipment used currently in the Middle East. The training emphasized that teamwork is the key to the success in any branch of the military, especially during a combat situation.

Then we embarked on the event of a lifetime, a flight on a KC-135 Tanker during a mid-air refueling of two F-16s. The flight crew was amazing and was more than accessible during the flight to answer questions and encourage our excitement. The mid air re-fueling took place near the Kansas border and all class members were able to get a view if they desired. We arrived back to base with tons of pictures and stories. Melissa Francis summarized the feeling of us all when she stated, “I’ve never been so proud of my country, those that work and serve in the military, or my co-Leadership Aurora classmates.”

The Leadership Aurora class prepares to board a KC-135 Tanker for the experience of a lifetime.

“Where There’s Smoke, There’s Fire”

Session Coordinators: Mark Stephenson (Chair),

Diane Norman, David Patterson, Jake Shirk

Our day started with a welcome from our very own Leadership Aurora classmate, Fire Chief Casey W. Jones, followed by a lively overview of the department and a very informative session where we learned a lot about fire behavior. The rest of the day was spent on a variety of hands-on activities including the use of thermal imaging equipment, the “jaws of life”, E.M.S., hazardous materials, decontamination units, fire prevention, bucket ride, and a thrilling descent from the tower on the slide rope. We also posed for a class picture in front of a propane fire some of our classmates had just tried to put out wearing full bunker gear.

The extent of community involvement by all levels within the AFD ranks is impressive. In life threatening situations the camaraderie seen among the firefighters is an asset. The leadership skills required in such a setting, to motivate, organize and mobilize so many facets is incredible. Teamwork and professionalism abounded during this highly informative and fun day.

All bunkered up, Brooke Brasher, Tom Tobiassen, Greg Fickas and Angelique Acevedo-Barrón pose in front of a car used for extrication drills on Fire Day.

Class Projects

"Adopt a Family - Holiday Gift and Food Baskets"

The class, in conjunction with Aurora Mental Health Center, provided food items for families in need at Thanksgiving and then again in December. The December baskets also included gift items for each family member. Through Leadership Aurora and other organizations, 180 families received a food basket at Thanksgiving and over 200 families had a great December holiday dinner complete with holiday gifts.

"Shelving Project for Comitis"

The class volunteered to help on the Comitis Crisis Center in the construction of shelving to store food items. Five shelving units were erected and food items were organized for the shelter. A very special thanks to Adolfson & Peterson Construction for the generous donation of building materials!

"Hotel/Motel Partnership Program"

Area hotels and motels are part of a national organization that assists the Comitis Crisis Center find hotel space for clients when emergencies arise. The class donated $640.16 to be used to provide "free nights" to homeless families in Aurora when situations arise where families cannot find shelter due to health issues, victims of crime and/or when emergency shelters are full.

"Rotary Club of Aurora - Children's Books"

The Rotary Club of Aurora has an award-winning program called Live-n-Learn. They send out invitations to over 3,000 grade school children to participate in a reading program eight times a year. The Rotary Members and Interact students read to the children, and the children are then allowed to take a book home. Class members donated children's books to this worthy cause.

"Donations to Joseph's Journey"

Throughout the course of this year, class members have met and worked with Joseph's Journey, an organization committed to granting the wish of an outdoor adventure to a child with a terminal illness. Class members provided additional funding to fulfill a child's wish.

Socials

Great friendships were formed through the 2003 Leadership Class and cultivated at the social activities held outside of the class sessions. The group kicked off the class year with drinks and appetizers at Caldonias and the Famous Door. Not all the socials involved bars however, as ten members of the class hiked Mt. Bierstadt on a beautiful October day. In February, the class cheered on the Nuggets at a game where the Nuggets won and after the Military "Pride and Presence" session the class was still flying high and headed over to Murphy Creek to wind down.

The Leadership Aurora class relaxes at Murphy Creek golf course after the Military Session.
