A New and Welcoming Face at The Chamber

It's important to be greeted by a friendly and welcoming face when you walk into a business, and The Chamber is delighted to introduce Rebecca Ebner as the face you will see when you enter the Chamber office.

Rebecca Ebner

Rebecca will serve as the administrative assistant, and comes to The Chamber with a strong background in productive and friendly customer service, as well as strong analytical and problem-solving skills.

Prior to coming to The Chamber, Ebner worked at Nightingale Suites and Nightingale Lane on the Springwood Retirement Campus in Arvada, CO. She has also served as a resident counselor for teen moms at Hope House of Colorado in Arvada, and as an Early Childhood Coordinator for Preschoolers and Teachers at Arvada Covenant Church.

Rebecca has a BA in Philosophy from Gordon College in MA, and a Master of Arts in Theological Studies from North Park University in IL. ■

Chance Horiuchi named BID Executive Director in Training

Chance Horiuchi, formerly Director of Business Development with the Aurora Chamber of Commerce, was recently named Executive Director in Training for the Havana Business Improvement District. Gayle Jetchick, who has been at the helm of the organization since its inception in 2007, will remain as Executive Director during the coming year to train Horiuchi in 'all things Havana BID.'

At The Chamber's recent Annual Awards Dinner, Horiuchi was honored for her time at The Chamber, and Jetchick — as Woman of the Year — for her time and dedication to the Havana BID.

It's great to keep both Chance and Gayle "in the neighborhood," said Chamber President and CEO Kevin Hougen. ■

ConocoPhillips gives $150K Grant for Aurora's Parks, Recreation and Open Space for Aurora's Youth

ConocoPhillips recently presented a $150,000 grant to the City of Aurora, to support Parks, Recreation and Open Space (PROS) programs that encourage active lifestyles, with a specific focus on serving Aurora's youth and enhancing existing programs including after school programs, aquatics, sports, therapeutic recreation, and day camps.

"Investing in the next generation is important," said Dione Holt, ConocoPhillips Niobrara Operations Manager. "It is why we are excited to support efforts to create a healthy and fun environment for Aurora's children. As we deliver on our commitment to responsibly provide energy, we also strive to be an active and valued member of the communities in which we live and operate."

"We are honored to have been selected for this highly competitive grant which benefits families across Aurora," said Byron Fanning, Manager with Aurora PROS. ■

Arapahoe County Commissioner Bill Holen appointed to National Committees

Arapahoe County Commissioner Bill Holen has been appointed by the National Association of Counties (NACo) Transportation Steering Committee to serve on two national committees aimed at pursuing legislation to address a broad array of programs supporting transportation, highway, bridge infrastructure, and military families.

Commissioner Bill Holen

"It is an honor to be chosen for these committees," said Holen, who is serving his second term as Commissioner representing District 5, which includes Glendale and portions of Aurora. "I look forward to working with commissioners from counties across our nation to share new and innovative ideas and to find ways to improve and protect our nation's transportation infrastructure." ■
